There were no boat arrivals yesterday, and our produce market was quiet, but the general market is not quite as deep in the slough of despond as in the previous two weeks. The accounts of the crops are looked for with interest, owing to the late cold weather. In the country around us we learn that cotton was showing some unfavorable symptoms, but that already it is giving signs of vigor under the warm and seasonable weather that has succeeded the very unfavorable cold of nearly a week's duration. The New Orleans Picayune, of Thursday, reports: Corn firm going on at the banks yesterday, but with no new feature; money plenty at generally 8 cwt; cornmeal stronger and scarce supply at new feature; money plenty at generally 8 per cent., with only a light call for it. The Anchor line packet, John B. Maude, Captain William Blake, leaves the elevator this evening at five o'clock for Cairo and St. Louis, attending to all bend business and connecting with the principal railroads for all points east and west. Mr. Gobel presides at

Milt Harry, the popular captain of the Ruth, yesterday "put down" for twenty-five dollars, with the suggestive expression "Make it more, if you want it," toward the Fourth of July display. Look out, fellow-mariners; the old patriotic fires still burn in and the bends, carrying the mail, doing all way business, and connecting at Arkansas City with the Pine Bluff railroad, and at Vicksburg with the New Orleans and Yazzo river packets, giving through bills of lading and ticketing passengers through. The City of Alton, Captain Bixby, of the New Orleans Anchor-line, arrived yesterday from St. Louis, and leaves this morning at ten o'clock for New Orleans, making all prin-cipal landings. She makes large additions to her cargo here. Captain Washington, at the Lee wharf boat, has near three thousand sacks of oil-meal for her and a lot of freight at Hepefield, and Superintendent Ad Storm, at the elevator, has a lot of oil-cake and meal and cotton for her. Mr. Mason is her purser, who will register those wishing a pleasant The Andy Baum left Cairo at noon Friday and arrived here at five o'clock yesterday morning, making the run, including fourteen landings, at one of which an hour or more was consumed in wooding, in seventeen hours. She had a good list of freight, and nours. She had a good list of freight, and registered a large number of passengers on the down trip. She is in command of that genial gentleman and skillful steamboatman, Captain H. J. Vinton, and will leave Monday evening with a return trip for Cincinnati, ticketing passengers through to all eastern cities at exceedingly leverage. Captain Deems is her chief clerk.

If it had not been for the following paragraph which we clip from the Ecening Ledger, of yesterday, we would nave given the Kehlor a "good notice" as she passed up Friday night. By the way, ain't it rather doubtful about her passing by this por, up stream, in one night? We append the warning paragraph: "Commodore Kountz proposes to contest the right some papers asume to misrepresent his steamers. He will ake in the St. Louis press, then skip over to ouisville and interview the namesake of the President regarding the spelling-bee and catfish stories the C.-J. has published."

The marines are notified that the next great event of the amusement persuasion will be the competitive drill, barbecue and bran dance, under the auspices of the two most popular military organizations in the State, the Chickasaw Guards and Bluff City irays, to take place at the Shelby count air-grounds next Friday, the twenty-fourth instant.
